Life is a journey, let Destination Us plan your next event stop!

The Mission

At Destination Us, LLC, we curate weddings and events that transcend the ordinary, weaving enchantment into every detail. We believe in the power of creative expression, allowing our clients' identities to flourish within every celebration.

Meet the Planner

Founder, Madison Lloyd, is magazine published, local news featured, and an award-winning planner with a wealth of experience in events. Despite launching Destination Us in January 2020, right before the pandemic hit, she has used her previous experience in catering, bartending, venue management, and event management to build a company to be proud of. She holds an MBA from WGU and a Bachelor's in Hospitality Management from USC, with a focus on events. Her personalized approach to each client ensures a tailor-made experience that matches their style.
